FAMILY LIFE AND SEX EDUCATION REGULATIONS

1. In courses where human reproductive organs and their functions and processes are described, illustrated, or discussed, opportunity will be provided for parents or guardians to review or inspect instructional materials to be utilized in instructions.
2. After review and/or inspection of instructional materials relating to family life and/or sex education, parents may request in writing that their children not attend. Letters should be addressed to the faculty member who is teaching the curriculum or alternative educational assignment.
3. Teachers who provide instruction in family life and sex education will have professional preparation in the subject area, either preservice or at the inservice level.
4. Students who request information seeking professional help in regard to pregnancy and/or sexually transmitted diseases shall be accorded the following:
 - a. School personnel will encourage students to explore all avenues of communication with his or her parent(s) or guardian(s).
 - b. School personnel will assist the student in seeking help from the resources available at the school.
 - c. School personnel will give the student information on resources available to them.
5. Student's privacy will be protected in accordance with state and federal law.
