Responsibilities and Duties of Teachers

The teacher shall be academically qualified in the area he/she is to instruct and should demonstrate a competence at transmitting learning to the student and the manner and means of accumulating, assimilating, and evaluating the knowledge associated with his/her academic field. The teacher should demonstrate an awareness of other academic fields and should possess a reasonable and responsible attitude toward the education of the whole child.

The teacher shall constantly be alert to the example presented to students, parents, community, and fellow workers. Relationships shall avoid personal attachments which detract from the obligation to constantly lead and critically evaluate the individual and the situation.

The teacher must be aware of various instructional trends and participate in exploration of possible changes in method or content of instruction.

The teacher shall demonstrate an ability to control the situations encountered in the performance of duties while exhibiting the proper respect for the dignity and worth of each individual.

The teacher shall demonstrate the ability to define the objectives of instruction and the ability to assess the results of the efficiency and effectiveness of the instruction.

The teacher is required to carry out assignments from the building Principal or other responsible Administrator in conformance with School Board policies, regulations of the Board and the Superintendent, and the collective bargaining agreement.
